Sharing the gift of warm clothing - and holiday entertainment for the whole family. This season, the Gladstone Theatre team invites its patrons to help our friends at Youth Services Ottawa, who are working hard to make it a warmer winter for Ottawa's at-risk youth and their families. A donation of mitts, gloves, scarves - and especially warm, wool socks - will be collected at every production of its popular annual Holiday Radio Show: Miracle on 34th St. at the Gladstone Theatre. Founded in 1960, the Youth Services Bureau of Ottawa (YSB) is one of the largest and most comprehensive non-profit agencies serving youth in this community. Over 350 caring professionals work from 20 locations across the city to deliver a vast range of programs and services that support at-risk youth and their families. The Miracle on 34th St. Friday, December 14 to December 23, 2012 Directed by Nicole Milne This holiday season, The Gladstone Theatre and Plosive Productions take you back to the Golden Age of Radio with a new adaptation of everyone's favourite Christmas story, Miracle on 34th Street. Wonderful storytelling, hilarious and heart-warming characters, singing, dancing, laughs & holiday spirit - ...an Ottawa Christmas isn't be complete without the Gladstone Holiday Radio Show tradition!

Dates: December 14-23, 2012 (Preview December 13) 8 pm evenings and 3:00 pm matinees
For more information about The Miracle on 34th Street, or other Gladstone shows, visit <http://www.thegladstone.ca> or call us at the Box Office at (613) 233-4523 (GLAD).
