

FIRM NEWS

Borden Ladner partner receives Order of Ottawa

JULIUS MELNITZER | Nov 23, 2012 3:13 PM ET

More from Julius Melnitzer

Jim Watson inducted 15 of Ottawa's most outstanding residents into the Order of Ottawa during a ceremony on Thursday, November 22 2012 at Ottawa City Hall. Those inducted by Mayor Watson into the Order of Ottawa are: Moe Atallah, Dr. John Bell, Paul Benoit, Hélène Campbell, Jim Durrell, Allison Fisher, Robert Gillett, Marc Jolicoeur, Terry Kelly, Russell Mills, Diane Morrison, Nazira Naz Tareen, Gisèle Richer, Christine Tremblay and Sara Vered.

The City of Ottawa has awarded Marc Jolicoeur, Borden Ladner Gervais' regional managing partner, the Order of Ottawa for his role as a community advocate and for his contributions to community service.

Jolicoeur has been an active member of many community organizations, including the Youth Services Bureau Foundation (incoming chair), University of Ottawa Heart Institute, Ottawa Community Foundation, United Way of Canada (former chair), United Way of Ottawa (former chair), BLG Reads to Kids, La Cité collégiale, and Le Regroupement des gens d'affaires d'Ottawa. He is also the longest serving chair in the University of Ottawa's history, providing his leadership to the school for almost two decades.

Most Popular

